

Dear NFN members and researchers in nephrology,

The annual NFN Scientific Fall Symposium will be integrated as a parallel program in the virtual version of the Dutch Nephrology Days on Wednesday 14th October 2020.

The scientific board of the Dutch Federation of Nephrology (NFN) cordially invites you to submit abstracts to the NFN Fall Symposium by sending an e-mail with attached Word file to: najaarsvergadering2020@gmail.com

The NFN Scientific Fall Symposium covers all aspects of experimental, clinical and epidemiological research in nephrology.

It may be efficient to consider the abstracts submitted for the 2020 ASN Kidney Week also for the NFN Scientific Fall Symposium.

Did you already submit an abstract for the Dutch Nephrology Days in the beginning of the year? This is your chance to submit your new data! Of note, do not (re-)submit your accepted Dutch Nephrology Days abstract to the NFN Scientific Fall Symposium.

Abstract preparation instructions for the BENELUX Kidney Meeting:

- Microsoft Word format
- Maximum 1 A4
- Times New Roman font 12
- Margins: all sides 2.5 centimeter
- Lay out: Title, Authors, Affiliations, Objective, Methods, Results, Conclusion
- Language: English

Abstract submission deadline: Friday September 4th, 23.59 uur

In the week of September 25th 2020 authors will be notified about acceptance of their abstract as an oral or poster presentation.

As always, prizes will be awarded to investigators presenting their work (PhD students or junior post-docs). The first, second and third prizes awarded for the oral presentations will be 500, 250 and 100 EURO, respectively. In addition a prize of 100 EURO will be awarded for the best poster presentation.

With kind regards,

Tom Nijenhuis & Johan van der Vlag
(Secretaries Scientific Board NFN)
